Guys, we will lose respect if we don't communicate. Tell him I'm not ready yet, they will keep asking for more and more money. They must give us something 1st, Jeremy Chaplan for NYPD, Total Access to commissioners & Deputy Mayors. We want something back before we move along. Please call him and tell him we as a team are not ready just yet, soon. Pls advise on your decision. When he contacted me the 1st thing I said was I will discuss with both of you.

He already contacted me and I said I'm happy to talk to her... should I reverse it?
